Acquisition of Ampack Ammann Enhancement of packaging competence for liquid and viscous products

Dear Madame/Sir,

We are pleased to inform you that Ampack Ammann is now part of Robert Bosch GmbH, division Bosch Packaging Technology. The transaction has been approved by the anti-trust authorities without further restrictions.

Ampack Ammann, located in Königsbrunn, Germany, has over 40 years of experience in filling of liquid and viscous product in pre-made cups and bottles. Adding these competencies to our portfolio allows us to offer you a wide range of sterile and aseptic packaging solutions. Integrating Ampack Ammann into the worldwide Bosch network also strengthens our One-Stop-Shopping approach for complete filling and packaging lines. We will quickly merge our expertise and expand our worldwide presence.

For more information about the acquisition, visit our website: www.boschpackaging.com

We thank you for your continued trust and look forward to continuing our successful cooperation.

Please distribute this letter to all departments in your company which may be concerned.

Yours sincerely,
Bosch Packaging Technology
