January 2013

Dear Sir or Madam,

With the very best wishes for health, happiness and prosperity in the New Year, Bosch Packaging Technology and its associates thank you for your faithful support. We look forward to many joint projects together in 2013.

Furthermore, we are happy to announce the signing of contracts to purchase a minority share of Industrial Pharmaceutical Resources, Inc., (IPR, Inc.), based in Bartlett, Illinois. The company updates and provides control and automation products as well as inspection systems for pharmaceutical equipment. The transaction is subject to normal closing conditions, including regulatory approvals.
