

March 2013

Dear Madame/Sir,

Whether its confectionery production, food and pharmaceuticals packaging, track and trace solutions for pharmaceutical manufacturers or comprehensive services and trainings – this newsletter provides you with an insight into our portfolio and reports on successful customer projects.

Of course, this is only a small excerpt of our solutions on offer. To provide you with clearer, faster and more efficient access to information all about Bosch Packaging Technology, we have launched our new website in early February.

The new German and English-language website displays over 350 products, our complete range of after-sales services, trainings, event dates, company information and features several news channels. You are able to directly hand in a Request for Quote or search the appropriate contact for your concern. Take a look!
